

New!

□ from Pacific Heritage Books!

LOTS OF LOST SOCKS...where do they disappear to? Discover the answer to an age-old mystery when you meet a monster with a ravenous appetite for everyone's favorite socks. For readers of all ages who have ever lost socks, this colorfully-illustrated book builds suspense to a surprise ending.

"Fun story...loved it."

- Carol Duan, Chinatown Branch Manager LA City Library

"What a terrific book to read to first and second graders...and of course, to my grandchildren."

- Dr. Sharon McClain, Superintendent, Hermosa Beach School District

"What a delightful rhyming tale of humor, play on words and suspense for children of all ages (that includes teens and adults)... You kept the reader guessing til the end ... 'where the socks go' can be acted out and get kids involved in each verse with a lot of expression and action."

- Dr. William Chun-Hoon, Principal (Ret.) LA Unified School District

"My son read the book to me. I laughed so hard, I cried! We can all relate to this monster... the pictures are fantastic!"

- Cathy Alessandra, mother of 3 and publisher of
What's Up For Kids: Connecting Parents with Resources

Copyright © 2005 Angi Ma Wong

ISBN 1-928753-00-0; 978-1-928753-00-1 $11.98 10" x 7"

32 pages- Full color - Printed, laminated case binding

Available through: Baker & Taylor, Follett, the distributors

Publisher: Pacific Heritage Books, Box 998, Palos Verdes Estates,

CA 90274 USA Toll free: 1-888-810-9891 Fax: 310-791-9069

www.pacificheritagebooks.com